The image features a variety of green leaves and ferns scattered around the central text. In the top left is a large, deeply lobed Monstera leaf. To its right are several smaller, heart-shaped leaves on thin stems. Further right is a single, rounded leaf with prominent veins. On the left side, there is a small, dark green fern frond. At the bottom left is another rounded leaf. The bottom center shows a cluster of small, pointed leaves. Finally, at the bottom right is another large Monstera leaf, similar to the one in the top left.
